Cameron Madison was vibrant, high spirited, tender hearted, generous, and always cared about the well-being of others. Cam was always active in sports and enjoyed being outdoors. Cam started playing football and wrestling at the age of five. Everyone who had the pleasure to meet Cameron fell in love with him. Whether it was because of his curls, dimples, little smirk of a smile, sincerity for other people, his humorous jokes and tricks he did. Cam was very active in supporting his siblings in their athletic achievements. Cameron had two brothers who also wrestled and played football, he had two sisters who played volleyball and cheerleading. Cam attended every varsity football game that he could, Cameron's dream was to play football in collage.

This scholarship is for the student(s) that best represent Cameron's love for other people, community, and his ability to bring joy to others.

We are searching for the student(s) that might not typically qualify for a traditional academic or athletic scholarship to be given priority consideration.
